

We pride ourself on programs that exist to meet tangible needs and build personal strength in the areas of education, health, social action and empowerment. We accomplish this by providing; support to youth who are at risk of dropping out of school; providing spiritual and emotional support to families, basic health services, and to provide a hot meal to feed the hungry and respond to the needs of the elderly.

